

	crawl on the ground	eat both plants and animals	eat fruits	eat grasses	eat leaves	eat meats	eat plants	fly in the sky	hunt insects	hunt other animals	is active at dawn and dusk	is active during the day	is active during the night	lays eggs	live in desert	live in rainforest	live in sea	live in trees	live in underground	live in water	live on land	prefer to live alone	prefer to live in groups	swim in the water	walk on the ground
Aardvark
Anglerfish
Antelope
Ape
Aphid
Armadillo
Bandicoot
Beetle
Bison
Blackbird
Boar
Bobolink
Catshark
Chinchilla
Crayfish
Dingo
Donkey
Earwig
Egret
Finch
Fish
Flea
Gamefowl
Giraffe
Goldfish
Guppy
Haddock
Hamster
Heron
Hoverfly
Hummingbird
Kingfisher
Kiwi
Koala
Ladybug
Lark
Lemming
Lizard
Louse
Lungfish
Manatee
Mink
Mollusk
Mule
Ocelot
Octopus
Peacock
Porpoise
Prawn
Puma
Rabbit
Roadrunner
Rodent
Rooster
Scallop
Shark
Shrimp
Silverfish
Skunk
Sloth
Stingray
Swordtail
Tiger
Tiglon
Toad
Tortoise
Toucan
Trout
Tuna
Turkey
Turtle
Tyrannosaurus
Urial
Vicuna
Viper
Vole
Vulture
Wallaby
Walrus
Warbler
Wasp
Weasel
Whale
Whippet
Whitefish
Wildcat
Wildebeest
Wildfowl
Wolf
Wolverine
Wombat
Woodpecker
Worm
Wren
Xerinae
Yak
Zebra																									